MA in Leadership in a Complex World

In a globalised, culturally diverse world, leadership is more important and more complex than ever. This course explores how to navigate those complexities, introducing key ideas needed to provide effective leadership in today's world.

Join us in January to study An Introduction to Global Leadership, and Organisational Development and Cultural Change.

MA in Member Care

People are often the most valuable resource an organisation has at its disposal. But that doesn't make them disposable. Invest in your work and provide the best possible member care for your team.

Join us in January to study The Mission Worker as a Person: Building life-skills and interpersonal skills, and The Member Care Worker: Equipping Self and Others.

2018 Intensive
