JANUARY 2026

TESOL as SERVICE

5th – 30th January 2026

Aim

This course is designed to equip learners to use their theoretical knowledge of current ESOL teaching and assessment methodology, practical skills of lesson and classroom management, and knowledge of online resources for teaching specific groups and programmes, to teach ESOL in a culturally responsive manner to learners in community settings in both NZ and internationally.

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of the course, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate language teaching methodological competence and classroom management skills to standard or above standard level, with English language learners in a practicum context.
2. Explain, in written form, the theoretical concepts of language learning and teaching, including the specialized vocabulary of the TESOL field, for diverse English language learners in cross-cultural contexts.
3. Evaluate the usefulness of two websites. One website should be evaluated for resources for future language learning and teaching, and one website should be evaluated for resources for future personal professional development.

Length

This is an intensive four-week micro-credential course at Level 5 (12 credits). Successful applicants will be required to complete pre-course assignments which include readings and observation reports of two different ESOL classes taught by qualified and experienced ESOL teachers.

Assessments

1. Practicum assessment: 2 x 45-minute teaching sessions with ESOL students. (70%)
2. Pre-course written assignments (2), based on reading of a course textbook. (20%)
3. Oral class presentation, with a written copy for the assessor, evaluating two websites for teaching and professional development. (10%)

Costs

Course Fees	NZ$ 1,850.00
Accommodation (subject to availability)	NZ$ 180.00 per week
